EXECUTIVE ORDER 2008-454

On May 27, 2008, Governor Beshear issued Executive Order 2008-454 establishing certain ethical standards for members of policy-making and regulatory boards and commissions. These standards were issued to insure that board and commission members who serve in the public sector are accountable to the people of the Commonwealth. The ethical guidelines in the executive order do not subject board and commission members to all provisions of the Executive Branch Code of Ethics contained in KRS Chapter 11A. The ethical standards that do apply to board and commission members specifically relate to the prohibition against self dealing, the obligation to disclose in writing or in the minutes of a meeting a direct or indirect interest, and gift acceptance provisions.

PROHIBITION AGAINST SELF DEALING

- No member of a state policy-making or regulatory board or commission, personally or through a business of which the member owns or controls an interest of more than five percent (5%), or by any other person for the member's use or benefit (spouse), may hold or enjoy, in whole or in part, any contract, agreement, lease, sale, or purchase made, entered into, awarded, or granted by the board, commission, authority, council or committee on which he or she serves.
- This prohibition does not apply to purchases that are available on the same terms to the general public or which are made at public auction.

OBLIGATION TO DISCLOSE AND ABSTAIN

- A state policy-making or regulatory board or commission member must disclose to other members of the board, commission, authority, council or committee of which he or she is a member, any direct or indirect interest in any undertaking that puts the member's personal interest in conflict with that of the board or commission on which he or she serves.
- This disclosure must be made in writing or must be recorded in the minutes of a formal meeting of the board or commission.
- A member who is required to publicly disclose a direct or indirect interest is required to abstain from all decisions concerning his or her interest if the decision will affect him or her as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group differently from other members of the business, profession, occupation or group.

EXAMPLES

- A company owned by a member of the Horse Park Commission is prohibited from selling items to the Horse Park gift shop.
- If the brother of a member of the Executive Branch Ethics Commission wanted to provide legal services for the Commission, the member would be required to disclose his potential conflict of interest and abstain from voting on whether the Commission should contract with his brother.

ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS

- Members of policy-making or regulatory boards and commissions are subject to the gift rules applicable to executive branch public servants found in KRS 11A.045(1).
- A board or commission member, and his or her spouse and dependent children, are prohibited from accepting gifts, including but not limited to travel expenses, meals, alcoholic beverages, and honoraria, totaling a value of more than $25 per source, in a single calendar year, from any person or business that is:
 - Doing business with
 - Regulated by
 - Seeking grants from
 - Involved in litigation against
 - Lobbying, or
 - Attempting to influence the actions of the board, commission, authority, or council on which the member serves.
- Exceptions to the gifts law:
 - A campaign contribution to a member's own campaign if in compliance with campaign finance laws
 - A gift from a family member
 - Door prizes, available to the public
 - A gift or gratuity received by a member working directly on an economic incentive package or seeking to bring tourism to the state that was accepted in the performance of the member's official duty, and
 - A ticket for admission to a sporting event if the member pays face value for the ticket or admission.
