2018 Legislative Session

Last week, the General Assembly's long-awaited Pension Reform bill was filed in the Senate. The Senate bill is the result of input from several key groups, and it makes several changes to the framework offered by Governor Bevin. Lawmakers claim the bill will save $4.8 billion over the next 30 years and will eliminate the unfunded liability causing a drag on state budgets.

Section-by-Section Breakdown of Pension Bill

Several other key issues saw movement last week in the House. First, the KYR-supported Bill HB 329, was passed favorably out of committee. HB 329, which is sponsored by REALTOR® Champion Rep. Adam Koenig, provides necessary accommodations for individuals with a genuine need for assistance animals, while also protecting property owners from those who would willfully seek to misrepresent the nature of their pets, oftentimes creating dangerous and expensive consequences. HB 329 also provides a clear definition of what constitutes an "assistance animal" and who may supply documentation to validate the need for an assistance animal.

Another big win came when the House passed HB 2, a bill reforming the Workers Compensation System in the state of Kentucky. This bill seeks to provide better care for injured workers while also making workers' compensation costs more affordable for Kentucky businesses.
