2018 Legislative Session

Last Tuesday was a significant day in Frankfort, as it marked the official deadline for candidates filing to run for the General Assembly in this year's election.

In the House, a total of 253 candidates filed for 100 seats. Of those 100 seats, 21 are open and 13 are unopposed. In the Senate, 43 candidates filed for 19 seats. Of those 19 seats, 1 is open and 2 are unopposed.

Map: Find out who is running for a seat in your area

The Primary Election is on May 22 and the General Election is on November 6, but in the meantime, the session marches on.

The passing of the candidate deadline also saw uptick in the number of bills being filed by legislators. The KYR Legislative Quick Response Team was busy reviewing 10 new bills filed last week (that makes 33 total bills the QRT is keeping tabs on). They decided to support 2 of the new bills, one of which tidies up language describing what is meant by the "full name" of the grantor or grantee in real property deeds, and the other of which allows for a tax credit for qualified home modification expenses incurred by an individual with a disability. There have been over 400 total bills filed this session already.
